

Stations like K-LOVE that use FM translators are very important in order to get Christian music to many areas that would not normally be able to support such stations on their own. Plus there is a valuable connection that is felt by having a quality, centralized program broadcast simultaneously across the country. I and my community of Tucson, AZ would be lacking greatly without the benefits of the positive music and programs of K-LOVE as it is currently offered.